Max. 60 points

b. OTDK 1-3. place, Special prize +30 points or TDK 1-3. place, Special prize +15 points

Only one of the two points is valid, so it is recommended to upload the certificate with the higher score.

c. Other outstanding academic, sporting, artistic or public activity, mentoring of foreign students, participation in an international project, project week courses, participation in an online international project in the context of class work, etc.) + 10 points (can be credited only once)

A total of 100 points can be obtained. A minimum of 20 points is required to be awarded.

In the case of equal scores, the ranking will be based on the motivation letter in English or in the language of the chosen training course, answering the following questions:

1. Please describe your areas of interest and your main achievements (including, if any, outstanding academic, sporting, artistic, credit-bearing voluntary or public activities). Why is it important for you to participate in Erasmus mobility? (max 150 words)

2. Describe your previous international experience. During your studies at BBS, what did you do to gain international experience (mentoring foreign students, participating in an international project, project week courses, participating in an online international project as part of class work, etc.) (max 150 words)
3. Why did you choose these countries/cities/institutions? To what extent does the host institution's course offer fits with your studies? What subjects would you like to study during your stay and in which language? What results do you expect from your mobility? (max 150 words)
4. Describe which language(s) do you speak and at what level? How will the planned study abroad contribute to the development of your language skills? Do you plan to take a language exam when you return home? (max 150 words)

Assessment: max 40 points

Of which quality 20 points and relevance 20 points

Quality:

You have answered the questions thoroughly and have shown your achievements so far and that you have made efforts to gain international experience during your BBS studies, illustrated with concrete personal examples. Answers are both grammatically and stilistically of high quality. max 20p

The questions were only partially answered and in many cases only general answers were given, with few concrete personal examples to illustrate what the student has done to gain international experience during his/her BBS studies. : max 10p

The answers to the questions are at a general level and there is no information that the student has previously done something to gain international experience during his/her BBS studies. Answers are linguistically undemanding: max 5 p

Relevance:

The student's motivation is convincing and it is clear that he/she has thought carefully about where he/she wants to go and why. He has also thought about the relevance for the development of his language skills. max 20 p

The student's motivation is moderately convincing and it is not clear that he/she has thought carefully about where he/she wants to go and why, and how he/she wants to develop language skills. max 10 points

The student's motivation is not very convincing and it is not clear that he/she has thought carefully about where he/she would like to go and why, and how he/she would like to develop his/her language skills. max 5 points
